Disclaimer

Royal Automotive LLC is not responsible for any deviations from what was originally on the vehicle and what is actually on the vehicle purchased. Most of the cars this service will be performed for are over 20 years old and original parts may have been replaced with non-original/factory parts. The information given by Royal Automotive is based on what the car had from the factory, it is up to the buyer to verify the numbers to make sure all the original equipment is still on the vehicle.
